

Preview of the 2005 Marker Homes

109 North Street
c.1850 – Craftsman

321 High Street
c.1939 – American Vernacular

1120 Pearl Street
c.1928 – Colonial Revival

101 East Forest Avenue
c.1873 –Italianate

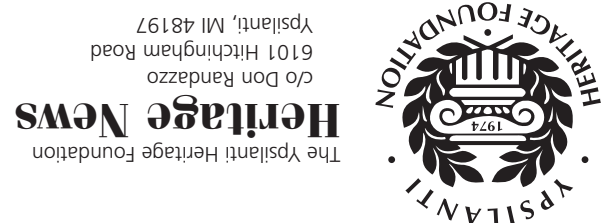

Have you visited the YHF website lately? There are new features you may find interesting • www.yhf.org

Heritage News is the newsletter of the Ypsilanti Heritage Foundation. It is published five times a year: September, November, January, March and May, and distributed, free of charge, to the membership by mail, and made available to the public at City Hall, and various business locations in the three business districts in the City.

See you at the Marker Banquet - Wednesday, May 25 at 6:30 p.m.

Ypsilanti Heritage Foundation Board Members

Hank Prebys, President
Joe Mattmoe, Treasurer
Jan Arps-Prundeanu
Brett Lenart
Pattie Harrington
Bill Nickels
Don Randazzo
Jane Schmiedeke
Paul Schreiber
Penny Schreiber
Andrea Webber

Heritage NEWS

MAY 2005

2005

Historic Markers

presented at the

May Banquet

The Ypsilanti Heritage Foundation would like to congratulate the 2005 Historic Marker recipients. The criteria used for awarding the marker includes the structure's architectural significance and the care and maintenance of the property.

This year the following property owners will be recognized at the Annual Awards Banquet:

Pam Hamblin
109 North Street

•
Jill Dieterle
321 High Street

•
James & Diane Reppke
1120 Pearl Street

•
Robert & Janice Anschuetz
101 East Forest Avenue

The Ypsilanti
Heritage Foundation
cordially invites you to

The Annual Awards Banquet

on Wednesday,
May 25, 2005
6:30 p.m.

at the
Ladies' Literary Club
218 N. Washington Street
Ypsilanti

Please call
Karen Nickels at 483-8896
or Penny Schreiber at 483-5688
if you plan to attend
and let them know
what dish
you will bring to pass

Historic Home Tour set for Sunday August 21st

Mark your calendars for the annual Ypsilanti Heritage Foundation Historic Home Tour. Held every August on the Sunday of the Heritage Festival, the tour this year features five private homes, some of the exciting loft apartments newly renovated on Michigan Avenue, and Bombadill's Cafe, also on Michigan Avenue. A sneak preview of the home tour properties will conclude the Marker Awards program on May 25.

703 Cambridge Road, Maxe and Terry Obermeyer

217 West Michigan Avenue, Bombadill's Cafe, Peter Rinehart, owner

306 South Huron Street, Diana Green

310 South Huron Street, Betty Two and Robert Miller

1206 Westmoorland Road, Kathy and Michael Bodary

702 Collegewood Drive, Vince and Cheryl Zuellig

200-208 West Michigan Avenue, West Michigan Lofts, Karen, Eric, and Walter Maurer, George Fotiadis, and Stewart Beal