

Ypsilanti Heritage Foundation
Board Meeting of February 4, 2008
Standard Printing Conference Room

Call to order:

The meeting was called to order by President Prebys at 7:35pm.

Roll Call:

Members present: Arps, Harrington, LaRue, Mattimoe, Penet, Prebys, Randazzo, Schmeideke, Schreiber, Webber

Home Tour:

Jan Arps indicated Barb Saxton will chair the home tour party and is looking for a Sunday ticket person. After-tour party is a Schreibers. Salt City Antiques to sell tickets replacing Quinn's Essentials.

Scotty James' loft apartment in Kresge Building, Abby and Christine on North Street. "Walkability" a theme, people who bike or walk to work.

Photo Project:

Barry and Penny demurred. "Too busy."

Next year's programs:

Keith Bruder will do program on Sept. 24 in conjunction with barn awards. Nov. 19 will be Marzoff and Stevens with a "before and after" show. Jan. 28 will be Beer and Ypsilanti by Rene Gref. March 25 will be a garden program, Penny will delve further. May 20 will be the marker awards program.

Jane has prepared a list for this year's Outbuilding Awards; 119 N. Huron, 213 and 215 E. Cross, 309 W. Cross and 106 and 112 S. Washington.

Next board meeting:

Wednesday, July 30 at Standard Printing

4th of July float:

"Red, white, blue and green" historic Preservation, recycling on a grand scale. July 3 at 9:30am will be set up at Nickels' garage. Less materials, more labor.

New sign for Towner House:

Jane led a discussion of possibilities

Some general discussion of the lack of updating of the YHF website. Patti will ask Mark Wonless.

Board members asked to consider topics for board retreat in spring of 2009.

