

Ypsilanti Heritage Foundation board meeting
February 6, 2012

Present: Prebys, Mattimoe, Dodd, Schmeideke, Harrington, LaRue, Randazzo, Alex & Claudia Petitt.

Meeting brought to order at 7:33pm

Minutes for January 9 meeting approved

Introduction of Michael Newberry. Mr. Newberry was elected to the board.

Newsletter: Dodd has lots of material on trees and Oldstead. Dodd brought up discussion he had with Al Rudisell about the possibility of combining the Gleanings with the Heritage News. LaRue mentioned that the Historical Society might be interested in actually merging the two organizations. Group will continue to discuss but overall opinion is that the two groups have different missions.

March 22nd general meeting on subject of trees. Prebys to discuss historic character of trees. Leigh Thurstston will not be a speaker.

Standard honorarium for speakers has been $50 in the past. Approval of $50 as honorarium. If more is requested it must come before the board.

Annual marker inspection-Jane distributed list for members to sign up.

Adaptive reuse buildings to be honored: Millworks Bldg., Materials Unlimited, Michigan Ladder, Miller Motors, Corner Brewery, Freighthouse and Utilities Instrumentation. Don removed marker at 310 Maple St.

EMU memorial for Jack Harris-No decision yet.

Towner House-Church has not met lately on the subject.

Video project-Jane not interested in doing video, but will submit to audio recording.

March 5th is next meeting.

Adjournment at 8:15pm
